1829 Same

1830 Tax of 1829 and 1830 - $1.155

1831 Susannah Rose no land tax; 2 cows - $16.

1832 No land tax recorded; 1 cattle - $8

1833 No Susannah Rose or Rowe; no personal property

1834 Susannah Rowe same tax as 1827

1835 Susannah Rose Same

1836 Susannah Rose Same

1837 Susannah Rose Same

1838 Susannah Rose Same

The tax lists on microfilm only go to 1838, so I will have to check the tax lists in the courthouse to see when she is listed given on the tax list, if you want.

I went through the 1827 tax list and pulled all those out that were owed tax on survey 1271, and I think the county got more than their fair share:

Jerre (?) Bloomer	10
Sarah Conner	50
Michael Creamer	53
James Conner	50
Samuel Corbett	100
George Fent	100
James Fent	100
George Harness	100
Joseph Harness	100
John Harness	63
Adam Harness	112
Joseph Hurless	46
Arthur Harness	54
Peter Harness	107
Sylvester Jenks	37
William Janes	280
James McCoy	171
Wm. Popejoy	106
Susannah Rowe	40
Wm. Wiley	275
John Wright	100
Charles Wilson	100
	2154 acres

Do any of these names sound familiar - could they be related to Susannah?

but the original survey was only for 2000 acres!

The only other thing I could find was in Federal Land Series, Vol. 4, part 1, p. 44 by Clifford Neal Smith. Under survey 1271 it gives Susanna Rowe. If you have access to this book you might want to read the preface and explanation. If not, let me know and I can send copies of the pertinent material.

I'm wondering if Sarah Conner and Susannah Conner Rowe might have purchased their land when Fayette County was still a part of Ross County - prior to 1810? Even if they did, when they disposed of the land should have been recorded in Fayette County. If you are interested in seeing if they bought the land while it was in Ross County, write to Wayne Cryder, Ross County Recorder, Courthouse, Chillicothe, OH 45601. Be sure to give him the survey number and the township name.

If you want me to search earlier or later tax lists here, please let me know, although I don't know if they will prove anything, other than when Susannah didn't pay taxes any longer.

Sorry I haven't been of more help.

Sincerely,
Sandy Fackler

Dear Mrs. Nunneley:

Thank you for sending the check so promptly. I'm afraid the search for Susannah Conner Rose is almost identical to that of Sarah Conner.

The following are the deeds that were recorded for Susannah Rose/Rowe/Ross:

D:80 Susanna Ross from Jacob Castleman, et al, 500a., s.683, No S. given, Apr 1819

D:125 Susannah Ross fr John Ross, 594a., s. 683, Oct 9, 1821

D:380 Susannah Ross fr Jacob Castleman, 500a., Partition, Dec 20, 1820

D:413 Susannah Ross fr Jacob Castleman, 594a., Partition, Oct 19, 1821

D:80 Susanna Ross et al to Margaret Smith, 500a., s. 683, Partition, 1819

D:80 Susanna Ross et al to Susannah Ross, 500a., s. 683, Partition, 1819

D:80 Susanna Ross et al to Mary Little, 611 1/6a., s. 1294, 1819, Partition

D:80 Susanna Ross et al fr Rachel Ekin, 611 1/6a., s. 1294, 1819

In other words, I could not find any entries, either grantor or grantee for Susannah Rose or Rowe in the right survey number, 1271.

Tax lists:
1826 Susannah Rowe, original proprietor Edward Duff, original acres 2000, survey # 1271, Watercourse Sugar Creek, acreage of present 40 a., value 51. No horses or cows.

1827 - you have

1828 Same as 1826 and 1827, except tax of 1827 and 1828 due (tax wasn't paid for the previous year) $ .805

Mrs. Martha J. Abbey

Dear Mrs. Abbey:

I am writing to you because of the ad in the May-June, 1989 issue of the Genealogical Helper pertaining to the next Llewellyn National Reunion. Though I am unable to attend, I am quite interested in the name and have had almost no success in my research.

My ancestor Charles Rose, a Revolutionary soldier, settled in Monongalia County, Virginia, in 1796 and died there in 1816. I am trying to prove that his daughter, Rachel Rose, married Benjamin Lewellen, a son of Doctor and Catherine Lewellen. Doctor Lewellen was one of the executors of the estate of Charles Rose.

I am enclosing a family group sheet for Benjamin and Rachel Lewellen and their children as taken from the 1850 census. I suspect there are other children.

If your organization has a genealogist for the name Lewellen or if you know of anyone interested in this name in Monongalia County, VA, I will be ever grateful for their names.

I am enclosing my stamped, self-addresses envelope for your convenience to reply.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Mrs. Lyon,

This date, I received my Nov-Dec 1994 issue of the Genealogical Helper and noticed your query on page 81, concerning Jacob Franks and Rebecca Rose.

Though it is unproven, several researchers think it possible that she is the daughter of Charles Rose and Rebecca Mulliner from Hunterdon Co., NJ to Monongalia Co., VA. Charles served in the Revolutionary War from New Jersey and was in Monongalia Co. VA by 1796, when he purchased his land. He died in that county in 1816.

About 10 years ago, I was contacted by Gill Brooks, a descendant of the Jacob Franks family and she stated that Rebecca was the daughter of Charles Rose and Rebecca Mulliner, but offered no proof. In 1993, I was contacted by Paul Cline of Glen Burnie, MD. He is also, researching this family. I gave him Gill Brooks address, but believe he told me the address was incorrect and his mail was returned. Mrs. Brooks may be deceased now for I had the feeling that she was elderly, although she never told me her age. I have not heard from Paul for over a year, but feel that he would welcome your correspondence.

I am enclosing some family group sheets and if we can prove that Rebecca is the daughter of Charles Rose, I have a great deal of material I can share concerning Charles and Rebecca Mulliner Rose.

My line is:

Ezekiel Rose married Mary Fidler

Charles Rose married Rebecca Mulliner

Elsie/Alsey Rose married James Conner

John Conner married Alvina Popejoy

Ella Ann Conner married William Harrison Mitchem

Orrin Ometa Mitchem married Ella Adaline Hendricks

Mabel Inez Mitchem married Raymond Henry Metzinger

Mary Ruth Metzinger married Richard Dean Nunneley

The parents of Ezekiel Rose, died 1768, Hunterdon Co. NJ are unknown. It has been suggested that he came from Rhode Island, but this is apparently in error and he probably came from Long Island, NY.

Look forward to hearing from you and anxious to know how you are related to this family.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary, 17 April 1993

Thank you for your letter. It was very good to hear from you. Let me update you on what we have done. We sent a letter to Betty Brooks, but it was returned as not deliverable. No further information on what that meant.

I may have some information that may cross your line as follows:
Janet Bishop m Paul Cline d/o
Mary Boner m Charles Daniel Bishop Jr d/o
Charles Homer Boner m Hulda Jane Cade s/o
Lafayette Bunner m Mary Shingleton s/o
Alexander Bunner m Lydia Little s/o
Hannah Trader m Reuben Bunner d/o
Tygal (Teagal) Trader m ???

In our family history information, Tygal is given as the brother of Arthur Trader (probably Aurther Jr.). I contacted someone who had information on the Trader family and her connection appears to be the wife of Arthur Sr. He married Sarah Conner who was the d/o John Conner and Mary. This John Conner died after 1796. She lists John's children which includes John Jr. b ca 1747 m Sarah. She goes on to say Sarah may have been a Trader, but no proof.

My guess is that your line coincides with this line. You may want to write to her if you don't know her already. The name is:
Freda Strampe
5462 King Street
Omaha, Nebraska 68152

I want to thank you for all the material you sent to us. It was very helpful. I hope that you find the enclosed as useful for your research. I have enclosed a descendancy chart of Jacob and Rebecah. From the way they nàmed their children, it appears that Rebecah was a child of Charles and Rebecah Rose.

From what we have learned of German and Dutch naming paterns, the children are usually named: 1st son after the paternal GF, 2nd son after the maternal GF, and so on. Of course it didn't always work that way, but if there happened to be other children that died along the way, it makes it difficult to figure out.

If you have an IBM compatable computer, I can send a complete dump of my "Jacob Franks" file. If not, let me know which lines you desire a more complete picture on and I can make a more complete printout on those lines.

I have also included a complete index on our line since we may have other ancestors in common. I hope this has been as helpful to you as your material has been to us. I would appreciate anything else you may have on Charles Rose, since we have just started on this branch. Sincerely,

Paul + family

Dear Paul and Family,

We have been in and out of town for the past three weeks, but finally got to the library to copy the promised material on Charles Rose.

Thank you so much for the descendancy chart for Jacob Franks and Rebecca Rose and the pedigree chart index. Several of the names on the index interest me. You ask if I had an IBM compatible computer. I do not have a computer, but do have access to one, so will appreciate anything you will send. I will copy the index and mark those names in which I have interest. I purchased a book (the last copy) from a Mr. Glenn D. Lough of Fairmont, WVA. The title is:

Now and long ago
Library of Congress catalog card # 76-77186
Apparently privately published

The book is 698 pages with only a partial index, but many of your names from the pedigree chart index are listed in the book. I have no idea if Mr. Lough has reprinted the book. If not, you may be able to obtain the book on loan from a library or the Library of Congress can microfilm it for you if they have it in their collection.

I have heard from Freda Strampe of Omaha concerning the Conner families. I have never corresponded with her, but knew of her research on this name. I will be able to correct some of her material, but can add little to what she has gathered over the past 13 years. This Conner line is a difficult research project!

Now to Charles Rose - He probably is the son of Ezekiel Rose and Mary Fidler of Hunterdon Co. NJ. The 1768 will of Ezekiel Rose mentions a son, Charles, and I have found no other Charles who would be of the correct age to be the Charles, later of Monongalia Co. VA. For many years, this Ezekiel Rose was thought to be a descendant of Tormut Rose of Block Island, RI. I believe many errors were made in reaching that conclusion. At this time, the parentage of Ezekiel Rose is unknown, but Christine Rose believes it a possibility that he and/or his family came from the Long Island Roses. I think this quite possible, but as yet unproven. Mary Fidler (m Ezekiel Rose) was the daughter of John Fidler and Sarah Smith Parke, the widow of John Parke (unproven that she was a widow of John Parke). John Fidler is supposed to be the son of Barnard Fidler and Elizabeth Reid (also, unproven). Sarah Smith (Parke) is supposed to be the daughter of Andrew Smith and Sarah Stout (unproven). Much of the material on the Fidler/Smith lines has been widely distributed for many years. It is available from any LDS Family History Center Library on microfilm under the title "Fidler Lore" by Hazel M. Kendall, 1958. It contains many errors, so use with caution.

Will close for now. Let me know if you wish to include the grandchildren of Charles and Rebecca Rose. If so, I will send those work sheets.

My best to your family. Mary

Dear Paul,

Sorry for the very long delay in answering your last two letters. I ordered some microfilm and books in hopes of adding information to the Charles Rose family. My effort did not add much additional information.

You had requested a list of the grandchildren of Charles and Rebecca Mulliner Rose. I am enclosing a family group sheet for each of their children. As you can see, we who research this family, have found nothing on some of the children. I suspect that there are other names of children who may have married before 1850 (census) and they will be hard to locate. Thank goodness for the will of Charles in 1816! We probably would not have known the names of his children, except for the will.

I have not had any luck at all with the Trader research. I keep thinking as I look over material concerning the Traders that many mistakes have been made...including DAR papers submitted many years ago.

You may be aware that many years ago a man, Fred W. Rose, did research on the Roses of New Jersey and determined through his research that Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co. NJ (father of Charles, d 1816) was a descendant of Tormut Rose of Block Island, RI. This lineage now appears flawed through the findings of some court documents. Christine Rose of the Rose Family Association has suggested that Ezekiel (d 1768, Hunterdon Co NJ) may descend from the Roses of Long Island. Fred Rose had the lineage as follows:

Tormut Rose (1632-1684) m Hannah George
John Rose (1678-ca1720) m Mary Dodge
Ezekiel Rose (1705-1768) m Mary Fidler
Charles Rose (ca1759-1816) m Rebecca Mulliner

The will of John Rose, 1720, names a son Ezekiel who is a minor. After the death of John Rose, his widow, Mary Dodge Rose married Oliver Ring. Her will in Jan 1750 (as Mary x Ring) names her son Ezekiel Rose. She call him of the town of New Shoreham. She baqueaths to Ezekiel, four cows, one mare and a note on Nathaniel Dodge. Her daughter, Anna Dodge is named "executor" and Anna is to give to Ezekiel his share "no faster than she shall think he needth it". Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon Co. was already in that county by 1749 when he witnessed a deed. It appears that Fred Rose did not have access to the will of Mary Ring when he assigned Ezekiel Rose of Hunterdon to this family. Surely Mary Ring of New Shoreham, RI knew that her son was living in the same town.

Guess we will need to keep searching for the proofs concerning the Roses.

Will close for this writing and hope this helps your research.

Dear Mary Nunneley, 8 Apr 1993,

I have recently been in contact with Christine Rose about a family connection. She suggested I contact you.

My connection is as follows:

Paul Cline Jr. m Cheryl A. De Young, s/o
Paul Cline m Janet M. Bishop, s/o
Gretta Maud Franks m Jesse B. Cline, d/o
James Madison Franks m Cora S. Morgan, s/o
Charles Marshall Franks m Barbara J. Craig, s/o
Michael Franks m Caroline Lewellin, s/o
Rebecah Rose b ca 1797 m Jacob Franks b ca 1798, possible d/o
Charles Rose m Rebecah Mulliner? (Franks records show Melonac).

Our family started home-schooling approximately 2 years ago. In order to make history more interesting, we started researching our family roots. It has proven to be a successful way to spark an interest in past events.

In that light, we would be delighted to hear your perspectives on this connection. If you would like, we also could share with you a more complete printout of Jacob and Rebecah's descandancy as we have it. Although it's by no means complete, it does contain quite a few names.

We look forward to hearing from you.
Sincerely,

Paul & family

Glen Burnie MD 21061

Dear Paul,

I received your letter concerning Charles Rose of Hunterdon Co., NJ and Monongalia Co. VA. I am delighted to find a family member of Rebecca Rose Franks. I have been very certain that she was a daughter of Charles and Rebecca, but have not been able to prove the relationship.

My connection is as follows:

Mary Ruth Metzinger m Richard Dean Nunneley d/o
Mabel Inez Mitchem m Raymond Henry Metzinger d/o
Orrin Ometa Mitchem m Ella Adaline Hendricks s/o
Ella Ann Conner m William Harrison Mitchem d/o
John Conner m Alvina Popejoy s/o
Alsey (Elsie) Rose m James Conner d/o
Charles Rose m Rebecca Mulliner

The family group sheets that are enclosed are really "work sheets" with no proofs indicated. I do have proofs for many of the dates, but have not copied those items. If you are interested in items concerning Charles, let me know and I will copy those for you.

The only contact I have had with another researcher doing work on Rebecca and Jacob Franks was:

Mrs. Betty Jane "Gill" Brooks
Box 123
Kissimmee FL 32742

Gill's connection is as follows:

Betty Jane "Gill" (pronounced Jill) Brooks m d/o
Frank Roy Jaco, b 1879 m s/o
Rebecca Ann Franks m Harvey Todd Jaco d/o
Rebecca Rose m Jacob Franks d/o
Charles Rose m Rebecca Mulliner

The last correspondence I had with Mrs. Brooks was in 1985. She did not answer my last letter and I rather wondered if something had happened to her. I have no idea how old she is/was, but her father was born in 1879.

I would appreciate the printout of Jacob's and Rebecah's descendants. Any information that you can send will surely help me in further researching this family.

I am enclosing the current Adventure guide to Oklahoma's Green Country. Bartlesville is in "Green Country". Thought your "students" might find the magazine of interest. Note on page four, you can order the rest that were published. A little history of the State of Oklahoma.

Will look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Mary R. M. Nunneley

Robert A. Cunning

Southern Richland County Newspapers. Edited and microfilmed by Lt. Col. Roger E. Turner (Ret.) and Gwendolyn Singrey Turner, Rt. 2, Pleasant Hill Rd., Perrysville, OH 44864. 22 rolls of microfilm.

The newspapers, consisting of over 11,000 pages, are between 50 and 100 years old and include newspapers that are no longer being published. They include The Butler Ohio Enterprise, Butler Ohio Times, Bellville Ohio Messenger, Lucas Liberal. Also included is the Bellville Ohio Star, which is still being published.

These newspapers are, in many cases, the only source of happenings of early times. They include births, marriages, deaths, divorces, land purchases, court proceedings, church proceedings, etc. These papers contain personal columns which will name and locate persons otherwise lost and can furnish relationships that were unknown.

As far as Col. & Mrs. Turner can ascertain, the newspapers are the only copies that were in existence at the time they were microfilmed. They are to be commended for preserving these valuable records and making them available for research.

Rose Family
Franks " Jaco "

Dear Mary

Had been waiting so impatiently to hear from you! Now you are going to have to learn how to read my hen-scratchin' as I'm of a non-typing generation. (So un-coordinated!)

Well, girl, we've got our Rebecca's solved. At this point I can not give you documented proof but from top of head can give you info of what I know from Mrs Harley Franks & the "Franks Black Books" which she had. For life of me, I can't put my hands on Vol I of Franks history but I know you have perused it. I'll just start with the family story as told to my mother & supplement w/info from Mrs. H. F. after my contact w/her some years ago. Later I will get this into proper perspective for you. My profession prevailed until my retirement 2½ yrs ago & there was much to be cared for in this museum before I had room & time to seriously begin research again of interesting ancestors— & I am almost to that point now.

Lets start at the bottom. Me. I am daughter of Frank Roy Jaco b. 1879 Fayette Co. Pa - son of Harvey Todd Jaco & Rebecca Ann Franks (I'll skip the maternal stuff)

Rebecca ann Franks, Jaco — b. 19 Sept 1838 - d. 14 Jan 1929
bur. Oak Grove Cem., Uniontown, Pa.
↑ dau of Jacob Franks b. 20 Feb 1798 at High House Settlement, Fayette co., d. 21 Dec 1875
bur. Nicholson Township, New Geneva, Fayette co. Pa.
& Rebecca Rose b. 12 ap 1797 ?, d. 9 Jan 1884
buried - same as Jacob

Children Michael (Civil War) D. Tyler co. W. Va before 1912
m. ① Caroline Lewellyn 5 children
Charles m. ① Bessie Johnson 2 children
Elizabeth D. 30 July 1873 m. Sidewell Miller 1 Chil
Mary m. ~~George~~ Baker 1 Chil also - said to be youngest child of family. Rebecca ann b. 19 Sept. 1838 D. 14 Jan. 1929
m. Harvey Todd Jaco 5 children
Albert d. in infancy
James d. a child
Matilda not married
Harriett M. m. 25 Oct. 1849
to John Steele Hare
1 child more children?

Have further info of children of Michael & Chas. names may help in further search as it appears these 2 remained in Fayette Co. area

Jacob Franks was son of Michael Franks III - ~~[illegible]~~
and Amy First (Furst)
Michael III b. 3 May 1773, German Township
Fayette Co Pa.

This has got to be Jacob's Glebe

d. 11 Feb. 1857 (?) bur. ~~Baptist~~ Cem.
Smithfield, Fayette Co. Pa.
m. – Amy 1796 (?)
b. 10 Jan. 1781 d. 2 Feb 1872
bur. same as Jacob

Records show 16 children (possibly 2 sets of twins – all lived to adulthood except 1.

Now off top of my head which I think came from Genealogical-Biographical Sketches of Fay. & Greene Counties – by Haddon
Jacob & Amy became prosperous farmers & donated land for church & cemetary. This is known as Jacob's Glebe & is short distance from Uniontown. Until about 4 yrs ago Franks Family gathered there each year for reunion but abandoned due to age & lack of interest. Mrs. Ruth Franks of U'ntown used to keep me informed.

Mrs. Harley Franks gave me story from Black Book that Rebecca Rose's father or g'father was ~~Duke~~ Lord of Mellinoc & ~~Duke~~ Lord was sent on mission to N.Y. by King ~~Chas.~~ George. He was to return at mission's completion & claim his reward, which was to be Long Island. He sailed. His ship lost at sea. His family in N.Y. were stranded penniless. Rebecca married the Rose, a tanner. Rose met a man from Fayette Co. and they traded N.Y. & Fayette land.

Rebecca is said to be born in England.

Fayette Co. land was rich in tanning bark so the family reached the land which was located at Ice's Ferry on Cheat River on border of Pa. & W. Va. (hence Monongalia Co. & nearest large town Morgantown.) The property was misrepresented in tanning bark value & the family struggled. Rose then built a powder factory - it burned. Family attended a local wedding dressed in beautiful finery & the local homespun gentry made fun of them. Is this tying in w/the life style of N. J. Rose families?

I possess a pair of handsome Bristol vases approx. 15-19 in. high & a quality mahogany hi boy from my g'mother Jaco which obviously did not come from Pa. German farmers. "Just old stuff relegated to the attic" & Jacos liked new things of quality. Well, my mother knew quality when she saw it & they were mortified to give it to her! But she got them! I also have beautiful hanging & prissmed lamps.

as to story of the ~~Duke~~ Lord. This story is factual but happened to a man Peter Minuet in Md or Del - I forget which - BUT - there may be a spark of something. Chris Rose picked up on Mellonee - Mullinax similarity.

My Jaco relatives were very assisted Mrs Harley Franks - think his name is on the book too. Donald J Sublette (SUBLETTE)

I haven't touched my materials in so long & didn't remember having spread sheets so I prepared one which is so much easier to study. It's good to be back with this & I have spent hours today reviewing files. Bless you & Chris for getting me going. It's been so discouraging! We are just completely stuck on JAC's beyond mid 1850's for my line. Such an unusual name & so few of us but the trails end abruptly - & then smatterings in 1700 & 1600's.

I apologize for this paper but it is all I use - & I've run out!

I'll look forward to some goodies from you. Please tell me we've put a puzzle piece together - & that we know about grannies in N J or N.Y.

Thank you so much.

Sincerely
Gill Brook

an explanation - my name is Betty Jane - Gill (pronounced Jill is nickname) strange & would not allow my mother to get her hands on the family bible - must have been a nigger in that wood pile. Just fed her bits & pieces but enuf that I have managed to contact & put together some generations of Jacos & Franks & Kefauver. Jaco is the HARD one. Help! My father's bros & sisters very very snobby & denied any relatives. After I got into research I found I had tons of Fayette Co. cousins & I've never met a one. Such a shame! How my mother would have enjoyed! She was so gregarious! I guess the family bible is lost - I have no idea how far back it went - maybe not far at all - but I mourn.

Another tid bit - It is said Rebecca ~~Ann~~ Rose ~~to~~ Franks or Rebecca Ann Franks Jaco had 2 bros. who were doctors. This could sift into Llewellyn.

I will be most interested to hear from you to see if we can make proof. One of the Jacob Franks was RevWar & I am close to filing supplemental papers to DAR & would also like to use the ~~Chas~~ Rose if possible. I have Jacob Franks will & can supply you when you are ready - so don't bother ordering it. And don't send anymore SASE's. I see we have a thing going

Dear Mrs. Franks:

I am writing in regard to the Franks Family Genealogy, which was published in the Ohio Records and Pioneer Families, April-June, 1969, pages 82-84. You list the children of Michael, III, 1773-1851 who married Amy First. I am very curious about the first listed child, Jacob, 1798-1875, who married Rebecca Rose. Do you know the name of the parents of this Rebecca Rose Franks?

I am doing research on my Rose family of Monongalia Co., VA and Ohio and am unable to locate marriages or any information for several of the children of Charles Rose and his wife Rebecca. Since I am aware that many of the names of the Michael Franks family are familiar to me in my areas of research, I have hopes this will assist me.

The information I have on Charles and Rebecca Rose:

Charles Rose, 1758-1816, m Rebecca ?

He was a Revolutionary soldier from NJ to Monongalia Co. VA by 1800. His wife, Rebecca, died after 1847 (petition for Revolutionary pension, denied). His will of 1816, Monongalia Co., lists the following children:

John Rose ca1788-	married	Edy Boyce on 27 ~~Sept~~ 27, 1808
Thomas Rose ca1784-	married	Ruth Scudder in Green Co. PA
Hopkins Rose ca1790-	married	Susannah Conner on 22 May 1812 in Fayette Co. PA (Isaac, son of Michael Franks III, also married #1, Nancy Morgan in this county)
Mary Rose	married	Ross
Rachael Rose ca1795	married	Benjamin Lewellen (?)
Rebecca Rose	married	?
Hannah Rose	married	?
Freelove Rose	married	?
Elsie Rose 1789-1861	married	James Conner on 31 Aug 1813
Charles Rose ca1806-	married	Jane ?

Since several children of one Jacob Franks married in Monongalia Co., I wonder if there can be a connection to Michael, III and Amy's son who married Rebecca Rose. Those marriages are:
Mary Franks (dau of Jacob) married, 23 Apr 1846 to George Baker
Harriet Franks (dau of Jacob) married, 22 Oct 1849 to John S. Hare
Charles Franks married, 11 June 1850 to Sarah Jane John
Michael Franks married, 23 Sept 1846 to Caroline Lewellen (dau of Thomas)

I am a member of DAR on Charles Rose and would be happy to share information on this line. Thank you for any information you may provide to further assist my research.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Richard Nunneley

Dear Gill,

Have gone over and over and over the Charles Rose material and just cannot see a thing for any proof to tie Rebecca Rose, the dau of Charles to Rebecca Rose Franks who married Jacob Franks. The only tie is location, Monongalia County, VA. That is not enough for proof.

I have never seen the Franks Family History by Mrs. Harley Franks, and when I did find a mention of it and wrote to Mrs. Franks, she was already deceased as I told you. So - I have no information from the book.

You are right, maybe the family sheets for all of the Franks children of Jacob and Rebecca might show me something I am not now seeing. When you have time, I would appreciate those. The fact that Jacob and Rebecca named children Charles and Rebecca is interesting.

As to the Lord Mellinoc sent on a mission to NY by King George - there was a Thomas Mellinoc or Mellinor who died quite early in NJ (do not remember the date). I would guess if there is any fact in the story, the Lord was pre-1744. This era might fit the "grandfather" of Rebecca Rose. But, we still do not know if she was ours.

The business - Rebecca had two brothers who were doctors. Thomas Rose, son of Charles is shown on the 1850 census of Monongalia Co. VA and his occupation is shown as a physician. John Rose, son of Charles, in a biography published years after his death, stated he was a pioneer of Meigs Co. Ohio and had considerable knowledge of medicine obtained mostly from the Indians. This John Rose was supposed to have lived with the Indians. But...seems I have also, see some Roses in Fayette Co., PA who were doctors and do not see a relationship to my Charles and Rebecca Rose of Monongalia Co. VA.

Sending along a bit of Jaco stuff I saw while researching in the Rose areas. I suspect they also, ended up in Preston Co. VA and there are no early records for that county. None before 1869, I think.. a burned county.

Look over what I am sending and see what you can see. Do, please send family sheets for the children of Jacob and Rebecca.

Write soon -

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mrs. Cobb:

Thank you for your letter concerning my questions sent to your mother, Mrs. Harley Franks. After some months had passed with no reply from her, I guessed that she was ill or deceased. She contributed much to genealogy with her work on the Franks family and I enjoyed her work which was published in various genealogical magazines. I am sure she would be pleased to know that you are , as time permits, answering her mail to those of us doing research. My greatest genealogical fan and my best friend, my mother, died on 19 Feb 1983, after a few months illness from cancer. She did live long enough to see me accepted into DAR on her ancestor, Charles Rose of New Jersey. It pleased her very much.

Yes the Rose family I am seeking is from Monongalia, W. VA. It was formerly Virginia until the Civil War, or rather, just prior to the Civil War. Your mother's research would have been considered today, as having been in West Virginia.

Since some members of my Charles Rose family of NJ and Monongalia Co., W. VA., also ended up in Fayette Co., PA, I rather suspect it a possibility that the Rebecca Rose who married the Franks may well be one of his daughters.

I would appreciate, when time permits, any copies of family sheets or material which might prove or disprove the relationship of this Rebecca Rose to my Charles Rose family of Monongalia Co. I certainly understand the time involved from your family and the distance from your sisters. Just let me know the expense incurred and I will be willing to pay for the cost of your copies and mileage.

I am enclosing a stamped envelope for any additional correspondence when time permits.

Thanks so much for writing. I only hope one of my children will be interested in my years of research work and be willing to take the time to answer letters that surely will arrive after I am gone.

Sincerely,

Mary

Feb. 21, 1984

Dear Mrs. Nunnely,

I am writing in response to your letter to my mother, Mrs. Harley Franks. She is deceased. I am her daughter and am trying to catch her mail up to date. She was very knowledgeable in the Franks history. I am keeping all her books and material and will try to keep them up to date as is possible. She taught me much but probably not enough.

I live on a farm and have six children so my time to do research is limited. My mother co-authored a Franks history book in 1979. In my copy of the book I found Jacob Franks married Rebecca Rose and they lived in Fayette Co., Pa. when they died. There is also information of them on the 1850 and 1860 census. Also the will of Jacob.

Then there is a list of their children.

My mother has all the papers that she got this info from but they are still at her house. I live about 25 miles away. My sister lives at my mothers house. Eventually I want to transfer all her material out here but that will take time. I don't know if she has a seperate sheet on Rebecca Rose that would show her parents. I will look this up for you if you want. I am not going in there this week though. My sister works so I can only catch her at night.

I did notice you say the Rose family is from Monongalia Co. VA. My mother's records say WVA.

I am sorry it has taken me so long to write. I'm making a list of the things I need to look up for people. I may have to charge a nominal fee if it takes a lot of time. It won't be a lot but with gas like it is I would need a little help.

Write me again if I take too long for you. I will do my best.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Alan Cobb

Mrs. Gill Brooks

Dear Mrs. Brooks:

Your name has been given to me by Christine Rose of the Rose Family Association of San Jose, CA.

I am researching the Charles and Rebecca Rose family of Monongalia County, W VA and have long wondered if their daughter, Rebecca Rose is the same Rebecca Rose who married Jacob Franks (son of Michael and Amy First/Furst). Others of this Franks family lived in Virginia. Christine wrote that you, sometime ago, corresponded with her concerning this same Rebecca Rose and Jacob Franks. Since it has been sometime since she has heard from you, your research may have already proven the parents of Rebecca, so will not copy a lot of material until I hear from you.

A bit about Charles and Rebecca - They may be the Charles Rose and Rebecca Mulliner who married in New Jersey, county not stated, on 13 Jan 1781. They, on 28 Nov 1796 purchased their first land in Monongalia County, VA. Charles died, will dated, 6 June 1816 and proven, Sept., 1816. We know that this is the Charles from NJ, who had the wife Rebecca, for she applied for a pension for his Revolutionary War service. Her application was denied for further proof in 1847 and she does not appear on any 1850 census, yet found, so she must have died by 1850.

In the will of Charles Rose in Monongalia County, he bequeaths to:

Rebeckah, his wife
Charles Rose, youngest son
John Rose, son
Thomas Rose, son
Hopkins Rose, son
Mary Ross, daughter
Aley Conner, daughter (this is my ancestor)
Rachel Rose, daughter
Rebeckah Rose, daughter
Hannah Rose, daughter
Freelove Rose, daughter

I wrote to Mrs. Harley Franks of Lansing, Michigan a year ago to see if she had any information about Rebecca Rose and Jacob Franks since she had co-authored a book about the Franks family. I had a letter from her daughter informing me that she was now deceased. The daughter promised as soon as time permitted, she would go through her mother's records for information concerning this family. I have not heard from her and doubt it would do any good to write again. She isn't a genealogist and said the records of the research were stored.

I would appreciate very much hearing from you and am enclosing an SASE for your convenience.

DEAR MARY:

I am doing research on the Rose Family. I am in hope you can help me. I recieved your address from Helen Rose Moore. She said you were researching the Charles Rose Family from Monongalia Co., W. VA.

I got my information from my Great-Aunt many years ago. It is real good on names and dates but no locations.

My Great-Great Grandmother was Lovernia Jane Bowen B.26 December 1854 in Vinton Iowa and md. William Henry Harrison Carmichael on 02 May 1872. She died 07 March 1934. Her parents were Thomas Spicer Bowen b. 12 May 1828 in Wheeling, West Virgina and md. Margaret Stansbery on 06 March 1851. He died 15 December 1893. His parents were WILLIAM BOWEN who md. FREELOVE ROSE on 03 June 1819. This is all the information I have on the Rose Family. Which is next to nothing.

Helen said she found Freelove Rose listed as one of Charles & Rebecca Rose's daughters in his will of September 1816.

I was wanting to know if you can confirm this or have any other information that could be of help to me on this family. Any help would be deeply appreciated.

I am enclosing a return envelope for you convience. I would like to hear about your Rose Family. HAPPY ANCESTOR HUNTING.

SINCERELY YOURS,

Wilma P. Orcutt

Charles Rose, a son of Isaac and margaret (Forsythe) Rose, was born in Virginia about 1798. He married Elizabeth Brian in Virginia between 1820 and 1830. Two census reports lead to considerable confusion as to the family and descendants of Charles Rose. The writer believes that they are for two different people, although there is no proof.

John and Rebeckah (Bowen) Rose Family

Compiled by

Harrison Co., Virginia; Fayette Co., Pennsylvania; and Clark, Clay, Estill, Madison and Montgomery Counties, Kentucky

NOTE: This is subject to corrections, additions, omissions etc. and is only for the purpose of further research. The courthouse records from Harrison County and Monongalia County, Virginia, and Fayette County, Pennsylvania are from our personal research at those Courthouses unless except for some court cases at the University of West Virginia at Morgantown. The deeds from Kentucky are mostly based on xerox copies. This is a "direct line report" and thus includes only the sections from our larger manuscript that are in direct line from the person for whom this report is prepared.

(1)

John 1 Rose was born 1761 (tbs.), died in 1843 (tbs.), (in Sept.?); married, date and place unknown, possibly in Harrison Co., Virginia, Rebeckah Bowen, born 1763 (tbs.), died 1835 (tbs.), both buried on old Rose Cemetery on Main Lacy's Creek, now Wolfe County,, Kentucky, daughter of David Bowen.

The first record of John Rose is in 1788 in Harrison Co., Virginia (now West Virginia). He is listed there as a tithable in the district of John Powers. (Also in the district is Enoch James, his brother-in-law, married to a sister of his wife.)

John Rose ass'ee of John Hopkins enters 30 acres part Treasury Warrant Nol 16062 dated 8 May 1788, adjoining John Pettyjohn and John Rose on east side of the Tyger Valley River, bounded by sd River. This is from a typed record, and seems to also show a date of October 22, 1798. It is unclear what the latter date represents and this should be re-checked.

In 1798 John Rose sold his Harrison County land, and in that same year he bought land in Monongalia Co., Virginia (now West Virginia) which he sold soon after, and also bought the same year in Fayette Co., Pennsylvania. He held the Pennsylvania land only two years, selling it in 1800, and removed sometime after to Kentucky.

Though there are no clues yet as to the ancestry of John Rose, the present compiler is of the belief that he is a brother of Robert Rose who settled in Montgomery Co., Kentucky, and probably of Israel Rose, also of Montgomery Co. Kentucky - all three are listed there in the 1830 census. Names are similar, locations, children's names, etc. (Note: For anyone interested in further information on the Robert Rose family of Montgomery Co., Kentucky, research report is available - inquire to Rose Family Association.)

The records usually refer to John Rose "of Wolfe Co., Kentucky" - however, he never actually lived in Wolfe County for that county was formed seventeen years after his death. We should probably refer to him "of Clark, Clay, Estill, Floyd, Madison and Montgomery Counties" since we have records of him there.

Some searchers think that John Rose was the son of a David and Martha Rose who are said to have come to American in colonial days, and settled in Pennsylvania. Some believe he moved from Ohio to near "Old Fort," Virginia, where a number of his children were born. However, there is no tangible evidence thus far found on either of these traditions.

Since it is said that he lived near "Old Fort" in Virginia, we have tried to determine that location. According to Mr. Russell, at one time head of the Virginia State Library, "We have not been able to positively locate 'Old Fort.' There is a reference in the Calendar of Virginia State Papers, v. 4, p. 213, to 'Old Fort' on the Monongahela River. The reference is a bond of George Rice and John Harvie for the removal of arms from the arsenal at Point of Fork, dated December 30, 1786."

Harley S. Little of Dayton, Ohio a number of years ago made a study of the location, and felt that because of his 1798 purchase in Fayette Co, Pennsylvania, that "Old Fort" referred to Redstone Old Fort in Fayette County. Wither's Of Border Warfare states in a footnote on page 77 that there was a camp at the mouth of Dunlap Creek (site of the present Brownsville, Pa.), an affluent of the Monongahela. The terminus of Nemacolin's Path (later known as Braddock's road) was Dunlap's Creek (Brownsville). A mile-and-a-qaurter below Dunlap's, enters Redstone Creek, and the name "Redstone" became affixed to the entire region hereabout, although "Monongahela" was sometimes used to indicate the panhandle between the Monongahela and the Youghiogheny. The compiler of this book also mentions that "There was at this time in Brownsville a fort, then known as Redstone ford, under the command of Capt. Paul."

In 1798 John Rose sold his Harrison County land, and in that same year he bought land in Monongalia Co., Virginia (now West Virginia) which he sold soon after. He also bought the same year in Fayette Co., Pennsylvania. He held the Pennsylvania land only two years, selling it in 1800, and removed shortly after to Kentucky.

Though there are no clues yet as to the ancestry of John Rose, the present consensus is of the belief that he is a brother of Robert Rose who settled in Montgomery Co., Kentucky, and probably of Israel Rose, also of Montgomery Co., Kentucky. All three are listed there in the 1810 census. Names are listed, locations, children's names, etc. (Note: For anyone interested in further information on the Robert Rose family of Montgomery Co., Kentucky, research report is available. Inquire to Rose Family Association.)

The records usually refer to John Rose "of Wolfe Co., Kentucky". However, he never actually lived in Wolfe County for that county was formed seventeen years after his death. We should probably refer to him "of Clark, Clay, Estill, Floyd, Madison and Montgomery Counties" since we have records of him there.

Some researchers think that John Rose was the son of a [illegible] and Martha Rose who are said to have come to America in colonial days, and settled in Pennsylvania. Some believe he moved from Ohio to near "Old Fort," Virginia, where a number of his children were born. However, there is no tangible evidence thus far found on either of these traditions.

Since it is said that he lived near "Old Fort" in Virginia, we have tried to determine that location. According to M. Russell, at one time head of the Virginia State Library, "We have not been able to positively locate 'Old Fort.' There is a reference in the Calendar of Virginia State Papers, V. 5, p. 213, to 'Old Fort' on the Monongahela River. The reference is a bond of George Lind and John Harris for the removal of arms from the arsenal at Point of Fork, dated November 20, 1790."

Harley D. Little of Dayton, Ohio a number of years ago made a study of the location, and felt that because of his 1798 purchase in Fayette Co., Pennsylvania, that "Old Fort" referred to Redstone Old Fort in Fayette County. Withers's Chronicles of Border Warfare states in a footnote on page 77 that there was a camp at the mouth of Redstone Creek (site of the present Brownsville, Pa.), an affluent of the Monongahela. The terminus of Nemacolin's Path (later known as Braddock's road) was Dunlap's Creek (Brownsville), a mile and a quarter below Dunlap's, entering Redstone Creek, and the name "Redstone" became affixed to the entire region hereabout, although "Monongahela" was sometimes used to indicate the panhandle between the Monongahela and the Youghiogheny. The compiler of this book also mentions that there was at this time in Brownsville a fort, then known as Redstone Fort, under the command of Capt. Paul.

Fayette County, Pennsylvania was originally a part of the District of West Augusta, Virginia, and could be the reason for confusion in the 1880 census of grandchildren - same saying their fathers were born in Virginia (who would be sons of John Rose), and some saying the same people were born in Pennsylvania.

It should be noted that Harrison Co., Virginia (now West Virginia) was formed in 1784 from Monongalia Co., Virginia, and that the latter was formed in 1776 from the District of West Augusta. One of the descendants of this family states that John Rose, son of John Sr. and Rebeckah (Bowen) Rose, was born in Augusta County near Staunton, Virginia (notes of Louise Rose).

From the Deeds of Harrison County, Virginia:

Deed Book 1, p. 305, 16 Jan. 1792, Joseph Davisson of Simpson Creek, Harrison Co., and wife Mary, to John Rose of same, for 100 lbs., land on "Tiger Valy River" adjoining land of David Evans on Monongalia River, 334 acres. Signed: Joseph Davisson, Mary Davisson. Delivered in open court Jan. Court 1792.

Deed Book 3, pp. 231-232 (from a typed copy in Deed Book), 15 Oct. 1798, John Rose and Rebekah his wife of Harrison Co., Va. to Alexander Nellen and Paul Saunders of Fayette Co., for $2046, on Tygers Valley, 103 1/4 acres. Signed: John Rose, Rebekah Rose. Personally ack. Oct. Court 1798.

Deed Book 4, pp. 6-7 (deterioated and torn), 15 Oct. 1798, John Rose and Rebekah his wife of Harrison Co. for ---? hundred and seventy four dollars, tract granted to Joseph Davison and by him to John Rose, 93 1/2 acres. Signed: John Rose, Rebekah Rose. Personally proved Oct. Court 1799.

Deed Book 4, p. 7, 15 Oct. 1798 (follows above item), John Rose and Rebeckah his wife of Harrison Co. to Nathan Fleming of Monongalia Co., west side of Tygers Valley. Signed: John Rose, Rebeckah Rose. Personally ack. Oct. 1798.

Deed Book 4, pp. 7-8, 15 Oct. 1798, John Rose and Rebeckah his wife of Harrison Co. to Alexander Nelen of Fayette Co., Pa., for $333.33, west side of Tygers Valley, orginally grnated to Joseph Davison and by him to John Rose, 100 acres. Signed: John Rose, Rebeckah Rose. (No acknowledgement.)

From the Deeds of Monongalia County, Virginia (now West Virginia):

Land Entries Book p. 349 (typed entries), (22 Oct. 1798?), John Rose, ass'ee of John Hopkins, enters 30 acres, part of Treasury Warrant No. 16062 dated 8 May 1788, adjoining John Pettyjohn and John Rose on east side of the Tyger Valley River, bounded by sd River. (Note that this is from a book of "Land Entries" - not the regular Deed Book.)

Fayette County, Pennsylvania was originally a part of the District of West Augusta, Virginia, and could be the reason for confusion in the 1850 census of grandchildren I see having their fathers were born in Virginia (who would be sons of John Rose), and some saying the same people were born in Pennsylvania.

It should be noted that Harrison Co., Virginia (now West Virginia) was formed in 1784 from Monongalia Co., Virginia, and that the latter was formed in 1776 from the District of West Augusta. One of the descendants of this family states that John Rose, son of John Sr. and Rebeckah (Brown) Rose, was born in Augusta County near Staunton, Virginia (notes of Louise Rose).

From the Deeds of Harrison County, Virginia:

Deed Book 1, p. 305, 18 Jan. 1792, Joseph Davisson of Simpson Creek, Harrison Co., and wife Mary, to John Rose of same, for 100 lbs., land on "Tyger Valy River" adjoining land of David Evans, on Monongalia River, 104 acres. Signed: Joseph Davisson, Mary Davisson. Delivered in open court Jan. Court 1792.

Deed Book 4, pp. 231-232 (from a typed copy in Deed Book), 15 Oct. 1798, John Rose & & Rebekah his wife of Harrison Co., Va. to Alexander Nelson and Paul Saunders of Fayette Co., for $2040, on Tygers Valley, 102 1/4 acres. Signed: John Rose, Rebekah Rose. Personally ack. Oct. Court 1798.

Deed Book 4, pp. 6-7 (date listed and torn), 15 Oct. 1798, John Rose and Rebekah his wife of Harrison Co., for three hundred and seventy four dollars, tract granted to Joseph Davisson and by him to John Rose, 93 1/2 acres. Signed: John Rose, Rebekah Rose. Personally proved Oct. Court 1798.

Deed Book 4, p. 7, 15 Oct. 1798 (follows above item), John Rose and Rebeckah his wife of Harrison Co. to Nathan Fleming of Monongalia Co., west side of Tygers Valley. Signed: John Rose, Rebeckah Rose. Personally ack. Oct. 1798.

Deed Book 4, pp. 7-8, 15 Oct. 1798, John Rose and Rebeckah his wife of Harrison Co. to Alexander Nelson of Fayette Co., Pa., for $133.33, west side of Tygers Valley, originally granted to Joseph Davisson and by him to John Rose, 100 acres. Signed: John Rose, Rebeckah Rose. (No acknowledgment.)

From the Deeds of Monongalia County, Virginia (now West Virginia):

Land Entries Book 2, 437 (typed entries), (23 Oct. 1790?), John Rose, assignee of John Hopkins, enters 30 acres, part of Treasury Warrant No. 10,053 dated 8 May 1780, adjoining John Pettyjohn and John Rose on east side of the Tygers Valley River, bounded by the River. (Note that this is from a book of "Land Entries" not the regular Deed Book.)

Deed Book OS 1, p. 491, 8 June 1798, Enoch James and Sarah his wife of Harrison Co., Va. to John Rose of same, for 50 lbs., land in Monongalia Co. on west fork just above mouth of Teverbaugh run bordering land of John Denham, 101 acres. Signed: Enoch James, Sarah James. Wit.: Thomas Cheney, John Hall of Harrison Co. Rec. 10 Nov. 1798.

Book OS 1, p. 492?, 9 June 1798, John Rose and Rebeckah his wife of Harrison Co., Va. to Samuel Freeman of Monongalia Co., land lying in Monongalia County westside of west fork above mouth of Tiverbaugh, line of John Denham. Signed: John Rose, Rebecca Rose. Wit.: John Ewens? or Evans, Thomas Laidley or Saidley, Thomas McKinely, Anthony Coon or Cook.

From the Deeds of Fayette County, Pennsylvania involving John Rose:

Deed Book D, p. 250, 18 Aug. 1798, Alexander Niland and Rachel his wife, Luzerne twp., Fayette Co, to John Rose of Harrion Co., Va., for 600 lbs. lawful money of Pa., portion of land on Dunlap Creek, Luzerne twp., adj. lands of Armstrong Porter dec'd, James Dearth Sr. dec'd, Roger Roberts, George Gushard, containing 82 acres. Signed: Alexander Niland, Rachel Niland. Wit.: Adam Kirk, Josiah Kirk. Rec. 9 Sept. 1800.

Deed Book D, p. 249 #431, 1 July 1800, John Rose to John Ball, land he purchased in 1798 from Alexander Neland; Neland bought it in 1788 from Andrew Gudget, who received it by patent. (Note: We did not personally examine this deed - details sent by a correspondent.)

During this time period there was some difficulty involving land that John Rose sold. It was claimed in a court action of Harrison County, Virginia May Term 1801 (Envelope 71) and Monongalia County, Virginia (Envelope 114-F) in an action of John Pettyjohn vs. John Rose, assignee of Daniel Davisson, that John Rose altered a patent or order for survey to include 66 acres additional, evidently because the land was vacant. It is stated that Joseph Davisson had long before obtained the order for resurvey, and sold his right in 334 acres to John Rose, and that the latter had no right or title to resurvey so as to include the addition 66 acres. There are a number of papers involving this proceeding in 1799, when John lived in Fayette County. [Disposition of this matter is not clearly marked on our papers.] On 14 January 1800 in a warrant against John Rose, formerly of Harrison County, in action in Monongalia County, it is stated that John Rose removed himself "out of this county."

From Monongalia County, Virginia Court Records there is an action of Sarah Merrifield vs. John Rose for debt. And in records of Harrison County, September 1799, there is record of action of Sammuel Merrifield vs. John Rose. In lengthy papers in this matter, Sarah is shown as daughter of Samuel Merrifield. There

Deed Book OB 1, p. 491, 8 June 1790, Enoch James and Sarah his wife of Harrison Co., Va. to John Rose of same, for 50 lbs., land in Monongalia Co. on east fork just above mouth of Tevebaugh run bordering land of John Denham, 101 acres. Signed: Enoch James, Sarah James. Wit: Thomas Chenay, John Hall of Harrison Co. Rec. 10 Nov. 1790.

Book OB 1, p. 492, 9 June 1790, John Rose and Rebeckah his wife of Harrison Co., Va. to Samuel Freeman of Monongalia Co., land lying in Monongalia County consisting of west fork above mouth of Tevebaugh, line of John Denham. Signed: John Rose, Rebecca Rose. Wit: John Ewens? or Evans, Thomas Lwaley or Beadley, Thomas McKinnely, Anthony Doan or Moon.

From the Deeds of Fayette County, Pennsylvania involving John Rose:

Deed Book D, p. 780, 18 Aug. 1797, Alexander Wiland and Rachel his wife, Luzerne twp., Fayette Co, to John Rose of Harrison Co., Va., for 200 lbs lawful money of Pa., parcel of land on Dunlap Creek, Luzerne twp., adj. lands of Armstrong Porter dec'd, James Hearth Sr. dec'd, Roger Roberts, George Rushmore, containing 86 acres. Signed: Alexander Wiland, Rachel Wiland. Wit: Adam Kirk, Nicolas Kirk. Rec. 6 Sept. 1800.

Deed Book D, p. 443, 1 July 1800. John Rose to John Hill, land he purchased in 1798 from Alexander Weland; Weland bought it in 1790 from Andrew Dudgeon, who received it by patent. (Note: We did not personally examine this deed; details sent by a correspondent.)

During this time period there was some difficulty involving land that John Rose sold. It was claimed in a court action of Harrison County, Virginia, May Term 1801 (Envelope 71) and Monongalia County, Virginia (in Envelope 114-?) in an action of John Pettyjohn vs. John Rose, assignee of Daniel Davisson, that John Rose altered a patent or order for survey to include 60 acres additional, evidently because this land was vacant. It is stated that Joseph Davisson had long before obtained the order for resurvey, and sold his rights in 120 acres to John Rose, and that the latter had no right or title to resurvey so as to include the addition 60 acres. There are a number of papers involving this proceeding in 1799, when John lived in Fayette County. [Disposition of this matter is not clearly marked on our papers.] On 14 January 1800 in a warrant against John Rose, formerly of Harrison County, in action in Monongalia County, it is stated that John Rose removed himself out of this county.

From Monongalia County, Virginia Court Records there is an action of Sarah Merrifield vs. John Rose for debt. And in records of Harrison County, September 1793, there is record of action of Samuel Merrifield vs. John Rose. In lengthy papers in this matter, Sarah is shown as daughter of Samuel Merrifield. There appears to be more than one action. In one, Sarah Merrifield complained of John Rose, John Anderson, james McColley, Reuben Willcox and Matthew Hines that they entered her home and removed property (evidently at the urging of John Rose, to satisfy a debt owed him by Merrifield). John Rose and Sarah Merrifield agreed to arbitration of their dispute, but expressly excluded the second case from arbitration. John Rose recovered in County Court 80 pounds, and Samuel Merrifield was ordered to pay John Rose 17 pounds 10 shillings and 8 pence in full of said judgment (27 December 1799, Harrison County Court).

1797, John Ross vs. John Rose, judgment against Rose, he to pay 6 dollars and 5 1/2 cents interest to Ross.

From Harry Stuart Holman's History of Tonolway Baptist Records, (Chambersburg, Pa.: The Printaway, 1980) p. 113, it is stated that Rebecca Ross [sic, Rose] joined the church sometime before August of 1802, for "it was at that time that she requested a letter of transfer to join the Muddy Creek Church in the western country." About this time her father died. He was David Bowen, Sr. of Montgomery Township, Franklin County, Pennsylvania.'" From "Goshen Church Records" (citation uncertain, published in a genealogical magazine) which met at Muddy Creek (Fayette County, Pennsylvania), there is an entry under date of 29 October 1803, "rec'd. Rebeckah Rose by letter."

It would appear from the following deed located in Madison County, Kentucky, that he removed from Pennsylvania to Montgomery County, Kentucky by 1804.

> Deed Book F, p. 607, 14 Feb. 1804, Fisher Rice of Jessamine Co., Ky. to John Rose of Montgomery Co., Ky., for 145 lbs., land being in Floyd Co. and Montgomery Co., on north fork of Kentucky River, mouth of Quicksand Creek, 1334 acres. Signed: John Anderson, attorney in fact for Fisher Rice. Wit.: Jacob Johns, Isaac Jones, George Smith. Rec. 5 Feb. 1807.

By 1806 he is designated as being of Madison County, Kentucky in the following deed located in that county:

> Deed Book F, p. 180, James Marr and Thomas Marr of Barren Co., Ky. to John Rose of Madison Co., Ky., for 160 lbs. lawful money of Ky., 1000 acres in Madison Co., no watercourse given but says it crossed River. Rec. 5 Aug. 1806.

He also owned land in Clay County, Kentucky, evidenced by the following:

> 1807 Tax List, Clay County
> JOHN ROSE: 1300 acres, north Fork Kentucky River, from F. Rice, 3/4 in Clay; 3 blacks over 10; 7 horses. (Note: Robert Rose also there.)

By 1808, when selling land in Clay County, Kentucky deed records, he is designated as being of Clark County, Kentucky:

Deed Book A, p. 12, 28 Mar. 1808, John Rose of Clark Co. Ky. to Woodard Broughton of co. of Clay, $60, tract on north fork of Ky. River, on northside in the county of Clay, "Rises" line (may refer to Rice), 150 acres. Signed: John Rose. wit.: Isam David, George Broughton, William Woodard. Ack.: 11 Apr. 1808.

We next find him in the records of Estill County, in the state of Kentucky:

1808 Estill Co, Kentucky Tax List
JOHN ROSE: no land shown, 1 white male over 21; 2 white male 14/21; 8 horses. (Note: Robert Rose also there.)

1809 Estill Co., Kentucky Tax List
JOHN ROSE (also there, David Rose and Robert Rose).

By 1810 he is again in Clay County records (census and other records, see later). From the deeds of that county:

Deed Book A, p. 572, 2 Apr. 1811, John Rose of Clay Co., Ky. to David Webb of Floyd Co., Ky., for $150, land in counties of Clay and Floyd on Quick Sand Creek held under Fisher Rices claim, bounded, by John Lassley, between said Webb and Lassley, to said Rices back line, cross said Quick Sand Creek, containing 1000 acres. Signed: John Rose. Wit.: Wiley Cope, Isaac (his x mark) Jones, Isaac (his x mark) Bates. Ack.: 9 July 1811.

Deed Book A, p. 65, 22 Dec. 1812, John Rose of Floyd Co., Ky. to William McGuire of Clay Co., for $600 lawful money of Ky., 640 acres, being part of James & Thos. Mare claim of 1000 acres, Middle fork of Kentucky River in co. of Clay, southside. Signed; John Rose. Wit.: James McGuire, David Snowden, Joseph (his x mark) Man, Nicholas (his x mark) Newland. Proved 12 Apr. 1813.

Deed Book A, p. 67, 22 Dec. 1812, John Rose of Floyd Co., Ky. to David Hagins of Clark Co., Ky., for $500 lawful money of Ky., 460 acres, upper part of James and Thomas Mare claim of 1000 acres, middle fork of Ky. River in co. of Clay, south side of sd River, between said John Rose and William Bryant. Signed: John Rose. Wit.: William McGuire, Joseph (his x mark) Man, Nicholas (his x mark) Newland, David Snowden. Proved 12 Apr. 1813.

From other Clay County records:

1811 Clay Co., Kentucky Tax List
JOHN ROSE: 3 horses; 2 whites (also there: David Rose and Robert Rose).

Tax List, Clay County, year 1813
JOHN ROSE SR.: 100 acres Quicksand (note: John Jr. & Robert Rose also there).

While living in Clay County he is mentioned in various court actions. One is a case in which he is complainant and complains of William Bryant in which he states he has behaved himself and was always respected but that defendant has published "several false scandalous malicious and defamatory words" of him, and states that he never was suspected of "robery or any other such hateful and odious crime." (In July Term of 1810 the jury returned a judgment but it is unclear from our copy as to who won the case. A sheet of paper, presumably in the same case file, showing "Rose vs Plummer, "said Rose had stole 2 cows on the North forks and he could prove it, & drove them --? -----?" and on the same sheet, Rose vs Bryant, "said that Rose Robed him of a Rifle Gun --?"

On 24 September 1808? a citation was issued to William Bryant to answer John Rose's complaint in the above matter (Clay County, Kentucky).

In another matter in Clay County Court of Samuel Hanson vs. John Rose, citation is issued against John Rose 13 June 1811 to appear 11 July Term, on 24 July 1811 to appear 11 October Term, and another issued 24 October 1811 to appear 1 April Term to answer the complaint. This is on a note dated 27 September 1810, evidently signed by John Rose, to secure $20.00.

There are a number of other cases involving John Rose in Clay County:

April Term, Apr. 1, 1810, Thomas Warren vs. John Rose. Judgment against John Rose, mostly for debt:

July Term, July 1, 1810, John Rose vs. Samuel Plummer, Trespassing, Judgment to Samuel Plummer.

July Term 1810, July 2, Simion Cockrell vs. John Rose, against John Rose, bail of $84.97, legal interest to be paid from November 27, 1806.

October Term 1810, John Rose vs Ha---born King? and George Watts?, John Rose to pay judgment and court costs.

Oct. 2, 1810, Daniel Bently vs. John Rose, debt.
Thomas Warren vs. John Rose, debt.
Judgment against John Rose

October Term 1811, Oct. 15
Samuel Hanson vs. John Rose, debt.
John Martin vs. John Rose, debt.
Judgment against John Rose, attachment of property and personal property

July Term 1812, John Martin vs. John Rose
Judgment against John Rose, he to pay $100 plus 6 per cent interest from Sept. 1, 1810 until debt is paid.

In the matter of John Martin vs. John Rose, a warrant was issued against John Rose 24 April 1811 in Clay County.

John Rose sold his Clay County land in 1812, perhaps because of his debts, and at this time designates himself of Floyd County:

> Deed Book A p. 65, 22 Dec. 1812, John Rose of Floyd Co., Ky., to William McGuire of Clay Co., for $600, 640 acres, part of James & Thos. Mare claim of 1000a cres on middle fork of Kentucky River in county of Clay. Signed: John Rose. Wit.: James McGuire, David Snowden, Joseph (his x mark) Mare (or Marr), Nicholas (his x mark) Newland. Ack.: 12 April 1813.
> Deed Book A p. 67, 22 Dec. 1812, John Rose of co. of Floyd, Ky. to David Haings of co. of Clark, for $500, 460 acres, upper part of James & Thomas Mare claim of 1000 acres, middle fork of the Kentucky river in co. of Clay. Signed: John Rose. Wit.: [same as above.] Ack.: 12 April 1813.

It would appear from the following that his next move was a return to Estill County, Kentucky:

1815 Estill Co., Kentucky Tax List
JOHN ROSE:

1816 Estill Co., Kentucky Tax List
JOHN ROSE: 100 acres in Floyd, 5 horses, total value $525.00 (note: Nathaniel Rose also there).

1817 Estill Co., Kentucky Tax List
JOHN ROSE: no land shown (note: Robert and Nathaniel Rose also there).

It would appear that he may have returned to Clay County, for we find:

1819 Clay Co., Kentucky Tax List
JNO. ROSE: 2 horses (is this Sr. or Jr.?)
(Note: David Rose also there.)

April Term 1820 (this had been continued for sometime):
Commonwealth vs Samuel Rose, to incite a riot
" vs Israel Rose, to incite a riot
" vs John Rose, to incite a riot

His next appearance is in the 1820 Census of Floyd County, Kentucky (see additional references later), and in 1830 is in the census of Montgomery County, Kentucky.

Though it appears that John had many hardships during his early years, life seems to have improved for him in later years. He died in 1843 and is buried on the Nosey John Rose farm. At the end of the garden, beside the barn, in what is now Wolfe County, Kentucky, are two stones:

him.

Clues for Further Searching

Rachel Rose, said to be sister of John Rose, married John McIntire, killed by Indians in 1791. He was son of Charles McIntire, said to be of Scotch-Irish ancestry. Charles McIntire came to West Fork Valley before the Revolution, but had to leave and return to their original home when the threat of Indians became so menacing. Charles McIntire served in the revolutionary war, and was Ensign. After the war the McIntires returned to the West Fork Valley area (where Enterprise now stands). It is believed that John McIntire, who married Rachel Rose, was the eldest son of Charles. John owned land in Harrison County, Virginia. In May, 1791, John McIntire and his wife Rachel Rose McIntire were killed by Indians while on their way home. Accounts of this killing can be found in Chronicles of Border Warfare by Alexander Scott Withers, and in A History of Northern Harrison County, (1982), p. 17, as well as other books on frontier warfare.

From Alexander Scott Withers, Chronicles of Border Warfare, pp. 397-398:

> In May, as John McIntire and his wife were returning from a visit, they passed through the yard of Uriah Ashcraft; and in a small space of time after, Mr. Ashcraft, startled by the sudden growling and springing up of one of his dogs, stepped quickly to the door to see what had aroused him. He had hardly reached the door, when he espied an Indian on the outside with his gun presented. Closing and making fast the door, he ascended the stairs that he might the better fire upon the unwelcome intruder; and after snapping three several times, and having discovered that there were other Indians in the yard, he raised a loud shout to apprize those who were within the sound of his wife, that he was surrounded by danger. Upon this the Indians moved off; and three brothers of McIntire coming to his relief, they all pursued the trail of the savages. About a mile from Ashcraft's, they found the body of John McIntire, tomahawked, scalped, and stripped; and concluding that Mrs. McIntire, was taken prisoner, they sent intelligence to Clarksburg of what had happened, and requested assistance to follow the Indians and recover the prisoner in captivity. The desired assistance was immediately afforded; and a company of men, led on by Col. John Haymond and Col. George Jackson, went in pursuit. On Middle Island creek, before they were aware of their proximity to the savages, they were fired upon by them, and two of the party very narrowly escaped being shot.-A ball passed through the hankerchief on the head of Col. Haymond, and another through the sleeve of Col. Jackson's shirt. The fire was promptly returned, and the men rushed forward. The Indians however, made good their retreat, though not without having experienced some injury; as was discovered by the blood, and the throwing down some of the plunder which they had taken. It was here first ascertained that Mrs. McIntire had been killed,-her scalp being among the things left-and on the return of the party, her body was found some small distance from where that of her husband had been previously discovered.

In September Court 1791 inventory of the estate of John McIntire deceased was returned in Harrison County, signed by David Wamsley and John Woods, appraisers, and signed by Andrew McIntire, administrator. Sale follows this document, dated October 21, 1791, and signed by the administrator.

pressing a fervent wish that he would live his life out and die here among the people he loved. The services were of exceeding interest throughout.

A still larger audience assembled for the evening services. Rev. Dr. Nesbitt, after the singing, asked Miss Millie G. Bentley to read a paper, which she did as follows, entitled

OFFICIAL MEMBERS.

The earliest Methodists in this place held their meetings in private houses or in rented buildings. This continued for thirteen years, or from the origin of the movement, in 1813, to the year 1826. In the beginning of that period, Æneas Graham, as already seen, was class leader, and John P. Shugart class steward. At the end of that period, as nearly as can be ascertained, there were three classes, led respectively by Æneas Graham, Asher Vankirk and James Mills. In 1826 William Jones, Æneas Graham and Robert Beebe, appointed a committee by the Quarterly Conference of the Beallsville Circuit, for the purchase of a three-story building standing on the river bank, and had it remodeled and made into a two-story church. It seems fairly certain that during the nine years of worship David Sherbondy was added to the list of class leaders, making in all probability a fourth class. It is impossible at this day to tell who were stewards during the period when the appointment remained a part of Beallsville circuit. Some of the Trustees holding the property on the river bank were Wm. Jones, Æneas Graham, Robert Beebe, Asher Vankirk, Joseph Alexander and William and John Herron. James Mills was a local preacher. The removal of the society from the church on the river bank to the new church on the corner of Race and Chess streets took place in May, 1835. The Trustees that then existed and that have since been elected, are as follows: Æneas Graham, A. Vankirk, J. Alexander, James Mills, Cyrus Underwood, John Herron, James Williams, David Williams, H. M. Bentley, Charles Rose, James Officer, Wm. Cott, R. M. Clark, Robert Coulter, Hiram Filson, J. F. Ferree, O. C. House, James Allen, R. F. Cooper, Abram Van Voorhis, S. P. Keller, Daniel Pierce, C. R. Stuckslager, Isaac Jones, William Coulter, Joseph Warne, John Blythe, Geo. T. Scott, M. Borland, J. D. Hammond, R. E. Byers and E. Downer. Of these thirty-four that held office during the half century just passed, seventeen have passed to their reward and seventeen are still on these mortal shores.

It has been found impossible, because of defective records, to give the names of local preachers, the exhorters, the stewards and the class leaders, that have served the society in the past fifty years. Revs. James Mills and John White, father of Judge White of Allegheny county, stand on the fragmentary records as class leaders at different times. They were located here and in business. In 1834 the class leaders were Ira Butler, Wm. Ihmsen, Asher Vankirk, David Sherbondy and Joseph Warne. Rev. Charles Cooke also had charge of two classes, making a total number of seven classes at that time.

It is a question of serious and practical import—have we been wise in allowing the class meetings to fall into a state of comparative decay? We have but three classes to-day. Ought we not to have ten? And if ten, and well attended, would there not come upon us a new aggressive life and force?

A. V. Graham said the services had revived memories of his childhood. He knew most of the men named, and was proud that his own family name had borne such a part among those who had helped to lay the cornerstone and worked all these years at the edifice. He referred especially to the Sunday school, and said he could say he had spent his life in the Sunday school. It had kept pace with the sentiment of the day and had grown to be a part of the church, nursery, a recruiting station. He remembered when one person filled the offices of superintendent, secretary, treasurer, librarian, and taught a class besides. Now we have four librarians. He remembered back to Hunter, third in the list of preachers; remembered Holmes, who interested the young folks of the town, lectured to them during the week on scientific and literary subjects. He

This census appears to "match", in many respects, the 1860 census for the family of Charles Rose (which see). Is it possible that when the census taker made his copies (or had someone else make them) that the Jane Rose, age 50 in Greenup Co. 1860 became JAMES, age 61 in Greenup Co. 1870. Is it possible that Joseph, age 25, in Greenup Co. 1860 became JOSEPHINE, age 34, in Greenup Co. 1870?

Note that the rest of the children in both census years remain the same names and age + 10 years from 1860 to 1870.

MAPLE HILL or SENCEBAUGH CEMETERY
Paint Creek Township, Allamakee County, Iowa

The Maple Hill or Sencebaugh cemetery was a part of the farm of Mr. Wm. Dunn who came from Virginia and settled in Allamakee County in 1851. A brother-in-law, Reuben Sencebaugh, owned an adjoining farm. Since this burial ground was nearer the latter family it became known by the Sencebaugh name.

The cemetery is about two and a quarter miles from Rossville, Iowa. To locate this area, drive east on No. 13 from Rossville to the first cross road. Turn south about one mile to the (present) Lee Smith farm. Just beyond, on the left side of the road, is the Maple Hill burial ground. It may be seen from the highway and there is a side road leading to it.

The cemetery record was compiled by Mrs. Rudy (Arlene) Forsberg, Wenatchee, Washington. It was indexed by Ethel L. McGlothlen, Des Moines. Historical note and directions for locating the burial ground were provided by Mrs. Cloyd Pettit, Waukon, Iowa.

Dear Mary,

I received a letter from Christine Rose the other day, telling me about your discovery.

It is very definately my family line as I have a copy of a letter sent to my aunt which states - Becky had 5 brothers - Harve, Sam, Calb. Joe + your grandfather (William. She only knew of one sister Ellen Hall. Rebecca was listed in the 1850 census in Mongalia Co. William was my great grand father and I have pictures of Becky. Her last name was Johnson.

Am I making any sense? The Charles Rose family moved from Monongalia Co to Kentucky and William moved to Iowa. Before William Thomas was Married

he took his father back to see his family
They had not seen each other for 40 years.
I do not have much else as my grandparents had a fire in their home and most of the old papers were lost.

I believe E. J. is Emily Jane and Mary Ed to be Mary Ellen. I had
2 great aunts Emma Jane and Mary Ellen Rose. Mary must have been Emma Halb and Beckys name was Johnson. I believe she married a man in the coal mining business as the pictures I have (photograps) were taken in 1927 showed a very nice home with servents quarters.

We were down your way in January as my husbands mother lived in Canby and passed away then. so it doesn't look like we will get down your way for awhile.

I don't know if this helped you but you certainly helped me. Thanks for your help.

Sincerely
Rose Mary Nelson

Son of William Thomas

Dear Mary:

You asked for information about Charles Rose and Jane from Monongalia county VA Charles was Charles William Rose and Jane was a McMullen. I am the gg grandaughter of Rebecca and Joseph Johnson. I have been trying so hard for several years to find out just who Joseph Johnson's parents were. I know he was born in Virginia. Do you have any information on Joseph at all. I would appreciate anything, siblings names, parents , where he lived. He died 1909 after May and befor or during the month of Sept 1909.

I have a lot of records on Charles, his parents, and his grandparents which I will enjoy sending you, but please tell me you know something about Joseph. Rebecca and Joseph had a daughter Minnie Belle. Minnie married a McClure and had a daughter she called Rebecca Rose (my mother) Mother married a Snyder and had me. I married a Hager and I have a daughter named Rebecca Rose.

I have been very busy trying to get all my genealogy into my computer. It is such a job. I still have a long way to go . Here is some papers, and remember I have lots more data. Which is yours for the asking.

Sincerely yours

Gwen Gwen

Dear Gwen,

Received your letter of 28 June 1996 concerning the Rose and Johnson families of Monongalia Co. VA and Greenup and Boyd Cos. KY. Yes, I would be delighted to receive your research material and compare our work. I would be happy to send anything additional that I could contribute.

You wondered about the parents of Joseph Johnson who married Rebecca Rose (dau of Charles and Jane). I feel almost certain that the William and Mary Johnson of the 1850 census of Monongalia Co. VA could be his parents. Since Joseph was born in June 1829, he would have, indeed, been about 20 years old in 1850. We know that Joseph's and Rebecca's dau, Mary, was born in VA about 1852, so know they were married before they went to KY. I have checked the marriages for Monongalia Co. VA. They were not married there, so as with so many Monongalians, they probably married in Fayette Co. PA, just across the state line. Also, William and Mary are NOT on the 1860 census of Monongalia Co. VA. Did they go to Greenup or Boyd Cos. KY when Charles and Jane Rose and family moved after 1850?. You might check the 1860 census for Greenup and Boyd Cos. KY.

I did not find a "Minnie Belle" listed as a dau of Joseph Johnson and Rebecca Rose. Is she the Wilhelmina born about 1872? I would guess that Minnie is a nickname for Wilhelmina.

My line is as follows:

Ezekiel Rose married Mary Fidler
Charles Rose married Rebecca Mulliner
Alsey Rose married James Conner
John Conner married Alvina Popejoy
Ella Ann Conner married William Harrison Mitchem
Orrin Ometa Mitchem married Ella Adaline Hendricks
Mabel Inex Mitchem married Raymond Henry Metzinger
Mary Ruth Metzinger married Richard Dean Nunneley

I have done a great deal of research on all of the children of Charles and Rebecca Mulliner Rose, not just on my own line (Alsey/Elsie who married James Conner). I was happy to see that you, too, feel that Ezekiel may have been born on Long Island. I believe a big mistake was made years ago concerning Ezekiel and his tie to Tormut Rose of Block Island, Rhode Island. Such mistakes happen in genealogy when all sources are not gathered before publishing that material. It is then almost impossible to change.

Will close for now and please note that we have moved to: 2095 SOUTH DEWEY, BARTLESVILLE OK 74003-6506.

Look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Mary

Joseph Johnson who married Rebecca Rose, dau of Charles and Jane Rose was born in June 1829, per the 1900 census of Boyd Co. KY. It seems probable that the Joseph Johnson in the household of William Johnson in the 1850 census of Monongalia Co. VA is one and the same. William and Mary Johnson are not listed on the 1860 census of Monongalia Co. VA. Greenup or Boyd Cos in KY should be checked since Joseph and Rebecca moved to KY after their marriage.

Dear Bob,

I saw your posting on GENFORUM, #9608. I, too, descend from Ezekial Rose via Charles Rose who married 13 Jan 1781 in NJ to Rebeckah Mulliner . Charles and Rebeckah's youngest son, Charles Rose and his wife, Jane, moved to Greenup, Kentucky from Monongalia, WV. Their daughter, Emily Jane Rose married Charles W. Worthington and had daughter, Sarah Ann Worthington, my grandmother. Her daughter Leona Ruth Whittington Woodall is my mother.

My question to you is: Do you have additional information on this family and would you being willing to share same? Also would you know who Charles Rose's wife, Jane, maiden's name was. She came from Pennsylvania.
Evidently, Rebeckah moved back to Fayette Co., Pa after her husband died. I thought maybe Jane and Rebeckah might be related.

Thank you for your help,

Ann Woodall Sutherland

Dear Ann,

It took longer than I thought to get through the information you asked about.

What I have on your Charles Rose who married Jane (McMullen-?-) is from Mary R. M. Nunneley (Bartlesville OK, e-mail: nunne002@sbcglobal.net) who is also descended from Charles Rose and Rebecca Mulliner through their daughter Elsie/Alsey Rose who married James Conner.

I would be more than happy to make copies of this file I received from Mary Nunneley on Charles and Jane if you could send me an address to mail it to.
It contains their nine children and their spouses names and family group sheets for each of them.

Interestingly, your Charles Worthington who married Emily Jane Rose lists four children (Ellen, ca 1863; Nancy J., ca 1865; Finley, ca 1867; and Charles, ca 1869) but does not list your grandmother Sarah Ann Worthington. Maybe she was born after 1869?

Anyway, I'm sure any additional information or corrections you could make to this file would be appreciated by Mary Nunneley as well as myself.

I have gone through the Rose Family DNA Project testing to confirm my correct Rose lineage (test #10264). We are part of Group K (descendants of Robert & Dorothy Rose of Long Island). Based on your e-mail, you and I would be fifth cousins. You can see these Rose project groupings at: http://ourworld.cs.com/christine4rose. From there click on the DNA project link.

I hope this is somewhat helpful. I look forward to hearing back from you at your convenience.

Sincerely,

Bob Rose Jr

Dear Mary,

I received your letter today and decided I had better get an answer off this evening. I am leaving for Salt Lake City early Sunday with a group from our genealogical society. We go once a year and it is always a lot of fun. Of course only ancestor hunters would call spending twelve hours a day in the library fun!

My husband and I just returned from a two week trip to Kentucky. We stayed at Greenbo State Park Lodge which is close to both the Greenup and Boyd courthouses and libraries. We have visited there about four times. We have no living family there, but that is where my husband's mother was born. She was the granddaughter of George Darby, who was the brother of Hugh Darby, father of Elizabeth. Now that's a twister. Hugh and George Darby went to Lawrence County, Ohio to work in the late 1830's. Hugh met Ursula Sharp, who I believe was from Lawrence County. She had a sister Emaline who married Joseph Fox, the brother of Elizabeth. Also Ursula had a brother, William Sharp, who moved to Greenup County from Ohio and was listed in the 1850 census next door to Emaline; p.177/274/274.

I am writing a book on the Darby family. I became interested in them when I started hunting for my husband's mother's line. There were so many Darbys in Greenup, Boyd, and Carter Counties with the same given names. I began to suspect that they had a common ancestor, and after seven years of searching I have linked most of them to one Hugh Darby, who was born in the village of Clogher in County Down, Ireland around 1753. He came to America with his wife and four children in the 1790's and settled in Westmoreland County, Pa. Two of those children were Hugh and James, born in 1783. There were eight more children born here but I have not traced any of them. James and his brother's son, Hugh, came into Kentucky around 1820 and settled in Bath County. It was here that Hugh and George Darby were born. The family moved into Greenup County in the mid-1830's. From the two Darby's who came into Kentucky I have found over 600 descendants.

I have completed a rough draft of the book, but gathered more information while on our trip to Kentucky and from the people attending the Darby reunion. So I will try to finish up what I can on this trip to Salt Lake and then that's it. There does come a time when you have to say this is it! If I find anything in SLC I will send it on to you. How are you related to Elizabeth Darby, or is it the Rose line?

Good luck on your search.

Gloria

In 1880 he was living with his wife and children in Henle Furnace and his brother in-law, Thomas Carr, was living with him.[17] He does not appear on any subsequent census.

He died on 28 Oct. 1913 in Boyd County.

ii Clara Darby, born 1878, married Elmer S. Frost in 1918. [MB:Boyd, Bk.15, p.119]

She married Calvin Rose on 4 Jul. 1872 in Greenup County. There is no record of her death.

Alexander, born in 1860 the son of Hugh and Ursula.

He married his cousin, Elizabeth Hutchinson.

The next child of James to be considered is his son, George, who is the direct ancestor of many of the Darbys in Greenup and Boyd Counties. Unfortunately, many of those descendants are not aware that George is their great or second great-grandfather.

Possibly this family account will help to solve many of their questions about their

CHAPTER 5

HUGH[3], 1818-1863

#8 HUGH DARBY[3], JAMES[2], HUGH[1]

Hugh Darby was born about 1818 in Bath County, Kentucky. He moved into Greenup County with his parents and settled near Old Town. Work must have been scarce in the area for he traveled to Ohio with his younger brother, George, to work.

While in Ohio he met and married Ursula Sharp on 1 Aug. 1839 in Portsmouth, Sciota County. [MB:Vol.A, p.37] Ursula's sister, Emaline, married Joseph Fox, the brother of Elizabeth. Elizabeth married Hugh's brother, George Darby. Hugh returned to Greenup where his first son, George, was born in 1840 and then went back to Ohio. When the 1850 census was taken, he was back in Greenup working as a collier, and had five children living at home.[9] Hugh was working as an iron ore collier. Living next door to him was Carolyn Darby, wife of his cousin, Hugh Darby.

In 1859 Hugh and his wife, Ursula, purchased from Jacob Everman, one hundred acres along the east bank of the Little Sandy River, bordering the land of Womack.[10]

Hugh and his family were on the 1860 Kentucky census in Boyd County. He probably did not move for Boyd became a county in 1860 and he lived in that part of Greenup County that was taken over by Boyd. Two of his daughters, Mary and Ann did not appear on this census. Mary was old enough to have married and left home, but Ann may have died. Hugh appeared again in the 1870 census. He was living at Hunnewell Furnace, and five of his ten children were still living at home.[11]

Hugh died on 22 June 1863 at Pennsylvania Furnace. He is buried in the cemetery there. When the 1880 census was taken, Ursula, his widow, was living with her son, Alexander, and he was working as a collier. There is no indication on the census, that they were still farming.[12]

#9 GEORGE DARBY[4], HUGH[3], JAMES[2], HUGH[1]

George Darby was born in 1839 in Greenup County. He served in the Union Army during the Civil War in Co. "E", 14th Kentucky Infantry.

George married Sarah Harding on 4 Jan 1866 in Ohio. Sarah was referred to as Sally. George, like the older members of the family worked as a collier. George and Sally had eleven children, many of whom later appeared on the Boyd County censuses.

The 1850 Annotated census for Greenup County states that George died in 1896[13]. George filed for an Invalid Pension on 29 Dec. 1890. and it was approved. His wife, Sally filed for a widow's pension on 11 Jul. 1896 and that, too, was approved. Sally does not appear on any later census, but the Kentucky Vital Statistics gives her date of death as 1 Jan. 1923.

Sally is buried in the Ashland Cemetery.

Dear Mrs. Gaddis,

I noted your queries in the January and April, 1995, issues of the Tree Shaker (Eastern Kentucky Genealogical Society) concerning the name Darby. Though I have just started the research on this particular ROSE line, I have recently found a Rose and Darby marriage in Greenup Co. KY. This appears to be the same area in which you are doing research.

Calvin H. Rose married Elizabeth "Lizzie" Darby on 4 July 1872 in Greenup Co. KY. Calvin was the son of Charles and Jane _______ Rose of Monongalia Co. VA to Greenup Co. KY by 1860. Calvin was a grandson of Charles Rose (a Revolutionary War soldier from Hunterdon Co. NJ) and his wife, Rebecca Mulliner. Charles and Rebecca moved from NJ to Monongalia Co. about 1796.

I have not, as yet, found the names of the parents of Elizabeth Darby. Are you connected in any way to this Elizabeth or do you know of her? On the 1900 census of Boyd Co. KY, the birthplace of her parents was listed as Kentucky. It states that she had been married for 27 years and that they have had nine children, with eight living. The census records and marriage record confirm this census. One son of Calvin and Elizabeth Darby Rose is shown on the 1880 Greenup Co. KY census as Johnnie, age seven. This child does not appear on another census, so apparently died prior to 1900 (and maybe much earlier).

I am enclosing a family group sheet for Calvin and Elizabeth and their nine children. As you see, I still have a great deal of work to fill in the missing dates.

Thank you for any assistance or suggestions you might give.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Gloria,

Received your letter of 26 Oct with the Elizabeth Darby information. I am only interested in the Darby family as it pertains to Elizabeth who married Calvin Rose. I am doing research on the Charles and Rebecca Mulliner Rose family from Hunterdon Co. NJ to Monongalia Co. VA by 1796. Charles was a Revolutionary soldier from NJ and I am a member of DAR on his RW service. After I completed my work on my DAR application, I became interested in all of the children of Charles and Rebecca, so began the search for all family members. I have amassed a great deal of information concerning their 10 children and many, many grandchildren. Calvin Rose who married Elizabeth Darby was a grandson of Charles and Rebecca, through their youngest child Charles, Jr. who married Jane________.

Your, soon to be, Darby book does not list all of the children of Elizabeth "Lizzie" Darby and Calvin H. Rose. I have those names if you would like to use them in the book. Also, you have no record of her death, nor do I, but Calvin H. born 4 Feb 1847 (Monongalia Co. VA), died 4 Mar 1911, buried 6 Mar 1911 in the Ashland (Boyd Co.) KY Cemetery. Elizabeth is probably buried there also. The Ashland Cemetery may be able to provide her dates, but I have not inquired of them as yet. I feel sure that many descendants of the nine children of Calvin and Elizabeth may still reside in Ashland or the area.

Elizabeth and Calvin had owned a home at 916 West Winchester Ave. in Ashland, KY for many years. He died at his residence of lung disease (he was a miner). Since he was a Civil War vet, Elizabeth could have applied for his pension. I have not looked for this information, as yet. If she did, those papers would also show her death date.

Thanks much for the names of the parents of "Lizzie". If you want the 1900 and 1910 census for Calvin and Elizabeth, let me know. And yes, 12 hours a day in any genealogical library is wonderful fun!!

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Aldora,

Thanks for your letter of 8 March concerning the White family. I have no information concerning the James K. White who married Sarah Ann Rose on 5 Aug 1869 in Greenup Co. KY with the exception of the 1880 census. As you see from the enclosed, they were living in Boyd Co. KY at that time. Note that James K. has his sister Elizabeth White, ae 53 living in the household.

When I looked at the 1860/70 censuses of Greenup Co., I did not know that Sarah had married James K. White, so did not look for them. I do need to re-order those census years.

The obituary you sent concerning Jasper M. White (from your mother-in-law's papers) is definitely a brother to James K. Note the children of James and Sarah (1880 census) and some surviving nieces and nephew. The names are the same. Also, Jasper was pre-deceased by his sister Miss Lib (surely Elizabeth) White, a beloved woman of Ashland. If Mary White Hart was another sister, why was her children not included as nieces and nephews in the obit of Jasper?

I am enclosing the 1850 census of Greenup Co. for Sarah Hart and family. She has a son George, ae 12, and is surely your George. Also, including the marriage certificate for George Hart and Mary White from Lawrence Co. OH. Note that it says that Mary White is a resident of Lawrence Co. OH. I found two of the brothers of Sarah Ann Rose White married in that county. It adjoins Greenup and Boyd Cos. just over the state line. Have you checked the 1860 census for Lawrence Co., OH for Mary? She would have been about 11 years old and should be with her parents (we hope). When I re-order the 1860 census for Greenup Co., I will also look for Mary (age 11) and James K. (age 15).

There is a great deal of difference in the ages of Elizabeth White (b ca 1827), Jasper M. White (b 6 Aug 1833) and James K. White (b ca 1845). now known brothers and sister. Your Mary White Hart is much closer in age to James K. White.

Do you have any idea when Mary died? I note from the obit of Charley Hart (son of Henry Hart and Ann Weeks) that he was to be buried in the Hart Cemetery. Although the obit is not dated, his birthdate + age indicates it was about 1937. Where is the Hart Cemetery??? Are his uncle George and aunt Mary White Hart also buried there? Maybe you should write to Evelyn Scyphers Jackson, Box 1834, Ashland KY, 41105-1834, editor of the Tree Shaker and ask if you knows the location of the Hart Cemetery and if it has been transcribed or published. Another thought - Charley's funeral was from the Pollard Baptist Church (your George's obit said he was a member of the Baptist Church). Surely the Pollard Baptist Church still exists. Maybe they have records of burials -

Thanks for the obits and Civil War item. I will continue to look for Mary and a possible connection to James K. White. We are in the process of moving, so it may be three months or so - Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary,

I noticed your query in the January issue of The Tree Shaker. I am researching my husband's family history and he has a White line.

You mention a James K. White who married Sarah Ann Rose. James K. White could be the brother of our Mary White who married George W. Hart.

I have been searching for information on Mary White for some time and have been unable to get very far. There was an obituary in some of my mother-in-law's papers for a Jasper M. White (copy enclosed). This led me to believe that Jasper might be Mary's brother and so I sent for his Civil War pension papers. In these papers it mentions a brother James K. White (copy enclosed).

Perhaps between us we can find a link between all of the above.

I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely,

Aldora

Bev,
Finally figured out the Shook connection, as follows:

Charles Rose married Rebecca Mulliner, and had Hopkins Rose married Susannah Conner, and had Ezekiel Rose married # 1 Rebecca McDorman (dau of John and Judy Bunch McDorman)

Ezekiel Rose and Rebecca McDorman had issue:
Eleanor Jane Rose (1839 - 1899)
John Hopkins Rose (1840 - 1916)
Susan Rose (ca 1841 - ??)
James Marion Rose (1842 - 1899)
Margaret Ann Rose (1846 - 1874)
Rachel Minerva Rose (ca 1848 - ??)
William Henry Rose (ca 1850 - ??)

Ezekiel Rose married # 2 Elizabeth Birt (dau of Andrew Davidson Birt and Elizabeth SHOOK)

Ezekiel Rose and Elizabeth Birt had issue:
Elizabeth "Betsy" Rose (1854 - 1922)
Lydia W. Rose (ca 1857 - ??)
Margie Alice Rose (1859 - 1926)
Andrew Davidson Rose (1861 - 1939)
Rebecca Rose (1865 - 1946
Jemima Rose (ca 1868 - ??)
Jacob C. Rose (1871 - 1951)
Rosella Melsena "Ella" Rose (1872 - 1901)
Hattie Hester Rose (1874 - 1958)
Charles Edward Rose 1880 - 1966)

Most of the above info comes from my cousin, Verna Rosacrans, who descends from Ezekiel Rose and Rebecca McDorman through their son, John Hopkins Rose. Verna and I have discussed the Shook connection over the years, but because it was Ezekiel's second marriage, I have done no research on the Shook line. . I will contact Verna and see if she is interested in the Shook information.

I have known and had contact with Christine Rose for many years. Had the opportunity to meet Christine and Seymour at a Tulsa Genealogy Society conference a few years ago. Christine was the main speaker for the conference. Such nice people !!

Will wait until I hear from Verna concerning the Shook material, since I do not descend directly from Ezekiel Rose as she does. I descend from Alsey Rose (dau of Charles and Rebecca). Alsey was a sister to Hopkins Rose who married Susannah Conner.

> I'm not sure- The Shook family came in and out of my family very early- in 1788 or so. However, what I see from this report that was sent to me, it came through the Birt (Burt)lines. An Andrew Birt married Elizabeth Shook 15 March 1825 in Greene Co., Ohio. I don't know if this is your line or not. He was the son of William Burt and Jemima Davidson and was born ca 1807. I can copy and mail you this print out if you want it. It has 75 pages, so too many to send via the computer.

I connect with the Shooks through William, Jr who was born about 1745 and died in 1813 in Bedford Co., TN..They went from Virginia to Tennessee, and on south. They came into my family around 1788 when Sarah Shook married Isaac Willson in TN. So I'm not at all familiar with the Ohio group, although I was sent this some time ago when I was researching the Shook family of Augusta Co., VA and Tennessee. I just happened to notice a "Rose" mentioned and my ears perked up. My ancestor is John Rose who is descended from William of Surry Co., VA- Surry, Southampton Co., VA, Surry and Wilkes Cos. NC, and TN...We have been involved with the DNA projects.

Chris and Seymour are our best friends and we see them at least once a week when they are at their condo in Vienna, VA where they spend the most of their time now. So every time I see another Rose name I immediately tell Chris so I can send it on...As I said, I'd be happy to send you this whole report that I was sent.

Unproven that this is John Steele Hare, but Civil War records might prove this to be him arriet Franks is the daughter of Jacob Franks and Rebecca Rose. Though not totally proven to me, it is thought that ebecca ROSE Franks was the daughter of Charles Rose and Rebecca Mulliner from Hunterdon Co. NJ to Monongalia Co. A by 1796. Charles was a Revolutionary soldier from Hunterdon Co. NJ.

everal years ago, I had contact with Paul Cline of Glen Burnie, MD who is descended from Rebecca ROSE and Jacob ranks through their son, Charles Marshall Franks who married Caroline Lewellin. Paul believed that Rebecca was the aughter of Charles and Rebecca Mulliner Rose. Also, had contact with Betty Jane "Gill" Brooks of Kissimmee, FL. Gill orked with Mrs. Harley Franks on this Franks line and is descended from Rebecca Ann Franks who married Harvey Todd ico. I believe that Gill may now be deceased.

y connection is that my ancestor Alsey Rose (daughter of Charles and Rebecca Mulliner Rose) who married James Conner probably a sister of Rebecca Rose who married Jacob Franks.

e new Michael Franks Family History.....2002..... lists a grandson of Jacob Franks and Rebecca Rose as: Rev Ellsworth are. I believe this is an error, per the census records. I think he was their son and his name was Marshall Ellsworth Hare:

1910 census / Clearfield Co. PA / page 213
Indexed as Marshall E. HARL, 46, Baptist Preacher

1920 census / Montgomery Co. PA / page 106
Indexed as Marshall E. HASE, 55, Baptist Clergyman

The Charles Rose family had some connection to the Baker family, probably from Hunterdon Co. NJ to Monongalia Co. VA. In 1847, Rebecca Mulliner Rose applied for a pension for the RW service of her husband Charles Rose. John N. Baker, apparently, gave a deposition for her. This is listed in the court records, but no further information has been found concerning this deposition. She apparently died before 1850 and never received the pension.

Subj: Re: A Rose burial
Date: 8/5/06 4:30:24 PM Central Daylight Time
From: Nunne002
To: Christine4Rose@cs.com

Just received a new book....Cemeteries of Greenup Co. KY.......and found the following:

Poynter (Pointer) Cemetery # 1 - Argillite, Greenup Co., KY
SW corner of Rtes # 1 and # 1459

CHARLES ROSE
9 Jul 1805 - 6 Jul 1864
Father

JANE ROSE
5 Mar 1809 - 24 Mar 1883
Mother

Charles was the son of Charles and Rebecca Mulliner of Monongalia Co. VA.
You may already have the dates and location of burial, but I did not and no one with whom I have corresponded did either. I knew they died in Greenup Co. KY, but did not know exact dates or where buried. Also, did not know exact birth dates. Might be a thought to publish the cemetery with their names and dates as a "filler item" in an upcoming quarterly for those who do not have the information.
Thanks,
Mary R M Nunneley
